$10,500 FOR OLD BOOK

Gower's "Confessio Amantis" Best Seller at Hoe Sale.

Total to Date in the Library Auction $101,857 - Erasmus Volume Brings $265.

Gower's "Confessio Amantis," the most important book in Part III of the Hoe library, was sold last night for $10,500 at the forty-seventh session of the sale, at the Anderson Galleries, to George D. Smith, who bought it for H. E. Huntington.

There are said to be only nineteen copies of this book in existence, of which only seven, including this one, which is probably the best, are perfect. This one is known as the Earl of Jersey's copy. The work is printed in Gothic character, double columns. It is bound in green morocco gilt, with leather joints and gilt edges, and is preserved in a morocco case E. F. Bonaventure gave $680 for one of hundred copies of Goucourt's "L'Art du dix-lutieme siecle," in four volumes, and George D. Smith gave $310 for "La Famille Cardinal," a first edition. The total for the day was $13,11450, and for the sale to date $101,857 50.

in four volumes, printed in Paris no ushers. tolume-of John Esquemeling's "Bucaniers their return make their home at the Wyom-of America," and for $190 "Proverbs or ing. 55th street and Seventh avenue. Adagies, with New addictions, etc.," by Desiderius Erasmus. The total of the efternoon session was $5,517,

W. M. Hill gave $290 for "The Life of Henry St. John, Lord Viscount Bolingbroke," a first edition by Oliver Goldsmith. This is a rare copy, uncut, and with the original blue wrappers bound in by Club Bindery. It was printed in London An interesting work obtained by Georg

D. Emith for $150 were some essays written by Michael Lord of Montaigne, translated into English from the French by John Florio and printed in London in 1613.

REWARDS FOR TWO HEROES

Benevolent Society Gives a Medal and $30 in Gold to Each.

Two medals for bravery displayed in rescuing persons in peril of drowning were pesented at Pier A by Dock Commissioner Benevolent Association of New York, yesgerday morning

Maher, a chauffeur, in the employ of the Dock Department, who on June 29 last was in an automobile with the Commissioner making his eighth rescue.

received the other medal for jumping into the swift current at Hell Gate from a de- performed the ceremony. partment boat in August and rescuing a by Court Injunction.

Portland, Me., April 18.-Claiming the Chartered Company of Lower California is indebted to him for $5,000,000, counsel for Wilbur F. Lakin, of Quincy, Mass., to-day filed a bill in equity against that company

In the Supreme Court. as the Magdalena Bay Company and have been negotiating for the sale of the prop-

An order restraining the Chartered Company from disposing of the property, pending a hearing, was issued.

MRS. HEINZ HURT IN AUTO MISHAP Minecia, Long Island, April 18 (Special) .-

Mrs. H. J. Heinz, wife of the pickle manufacturer, was injured on the Jericho Turnpike here late this afternoon when her automobile was overturned owing to the pulled off.

bruised, but no bones were broken. She was taken to the Nassau Hospitul, where the was advised to remain overnight.

Y. W. H. A. FUND NOW $90,000.

The committee in charge of the work of collecting the $250,000 fund to erect a new building for the Young Women's Hebrew Association reported yesterday that the $9,000 mark had been passed with the $4,728 which was contributed yesterday. Of this amount $2,500 was given by the children of Mrs. Cecilie Borg in memory of their father, Simon Borg. The date fixed for the collection of the full amount is April 25. to that it will be necessary to collect $20,000 a day from now on.

STEINWAY TUBE PLAN APPROVED.

The Board of Estimate approved unanimously yesterday the route and general plan for the extension of the Steinway tunbel line from the East River through 42d Street to Times Square, and the Seventh evenue extension of the present subway south to the Battery from Times Square. Consideration of the proposed Montague elrest tunnel to Brooklyn was postponed for a week.

NEW YORK FROM THE SUBURBS. New York suffragettes have adopted for wear a hat that costs only 39 cents. Now watch en support the movement.- Detroit Free In New York a judge has ruled that it is libelous to call a man a "dead one." And saids from the legal aspect of the question, it aust he irritating to New York undertakers to bear of so much business keeping out of their clutches. Des Moines Register and Leader.

The New York Bible Society announces that ready to supply Bibles in any language at cost, or free if those who desire them are poor. The object of the society is not to make money but to distribute the Scriptures in the city and harbor of New York-where thoughtful reading of them may unquestionably do a vast amount

Some investigation into the high cost of liv ing in New York has revealed the fact that certain kinds of supplies passed through twelve hands from the producer to the consumer. This explains at least some of the trouble. It is asserted that no one of these got more than a reasonable profit, but twelve reasonable profits on any article pile up considerably and can hardly fall to make the ultimate cost unreasonable,-Philadelphia Press.

Magistrate House adds himself to the list of New York City judicial officers who are criticising the police. The department is incompe tently directed, he says. As for the men of the so called "strong arm squad," they mutta" It is not easy to see which side has the right of the magistrate-police squabble. it is easy to guess that its existence does not make for increased efficiency in the matter preserving person, property and justice. -Fart-

Andrew Carnegie's Niece, Widow of

Riding Master, Weds Kentuckian. [By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Fernandina, Fla., April 18.-Mrs. Nancy Carnegie Hever, niece of Andrew Carnegie, was married at her summer home here yes terday to Dr. Marius Johnston, of Lexing-

HUNTINGTON HEAVY BUYER Her first husband was James Hever, a riding instructor in New York, with whom he eloped in 1904. Mr. and Mrs. Hever lived together several years and three children vere born to them. Following a quarrel, Mrs Hever came here to live, where she met Dr. Johnston on his return from hunting trip to Africa with Paul Rainey After the death of Hever, who was killed by falling from a horse last September, Dr. Johnston began paying court to the young widow, and on Monday last announced their engagement.

Mrs. Hever, who considers Philadelphia H. P. Johnston, president of the American Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, who is one of the best known men in Kentucky.

WEDDINGS.

The marriage of Mrs. Kate Hathaway Dougan to Dr. D. Everett Taylor took place yesterday at noon at the Church of the lowed by a breakfast at the Hotel Astor. nor, M. Hochereau, inserted. Mr. Drake denias. She had no attendants. Herbert also paid $115 for "The History of Tom L. Haskell was the best man. There were

As soon as Dr. Taylor's professional buyer for H. E. Hontington. For $165 he duties will permit he and his bride will voters the other ballot. If they still wished buyer for H. E. Hontington. For $185 ne duties will permit be and his bride will to vote their own ticket, the affidavits state, teachers who shall be promoted shall re-

Miss Lucy Brace Pratt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William H. B. Pratt, was married last evening to Leonard Edward Fackner by the Rev. Dr. George P. Mains, of Manhattan, an old family friend. The cerenony, which took place at the Pratt home, No. 94 Sixth avenue, Brooklyn, was followed by a small reception.

Miss Marilla Houghton Pratt attended her sister as maid of honor and Mr. Fackner had as best man Thomas Johnson Allen, of Manhattan. The ushers were William Brace Pratt, Walter Franklin, Allen L. Taylor, of Brooklyn, and Howard Dorles, of Boston. Carrying ropes of smilax and roses, which ormed the aisle for the bridal party, were Miss Dorothy Fackner, Miss Jennie Copeand, Miss Harriet Love, Miss Nellie Hubbs, Miss Mary E. Peck, Miss Rachel Burnet, of Brooklyn; Miss Miriam Crowell, of Dorhester, Mass., and Miss Anna D. Wight, of Glen Ridge, N. J.

The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Robinson Kennedy and was edu-Calvin Tomkins, acting on behalf of the cated at Packer Institute. Mr. Fackner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fackner, of Brooklyn, and is a graduate of the One of the recipients was Francis Joseph Polytechnic and Cornell.

Miss Anna Kate Schnakenberg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schnakenberg, of when a man attempted suicide by jumping Tompkinsville, Staten Island, and the Hotel from the Battery wall. Maher jumped in St. Andrew, was married on Wednesday after him fully dressed and saved him, in the Church of the Heavenly Rest to Edward Everett Bartlett, jr., of New York. Joseph Byrnes, a deckhand, in the employ The Rev. Herbert Shipman, the rector, asof the Department of Docks and Ferries, sisted by the Rev. Duncan H. Broome, rector of Christ Church, New Brighton, Miss Schnakenberg's maid of honor was Miss Edith Salisstoker who had fallen overboard from a bury Davenport, and Mr. Bartlett's best tugboat. Each of the men received $30 in man was his brother, Irving G. Bartlett. gold from the society in addition to the The bridgeroom is a member of the firm of Gwathmey & Co., cotton brokers at No. 22 Exchange Place, and lives at No. 836 West BTOPS MAGDALENA BAY SALE End avenue with his father, Edward Everett Bartlett, president of the Bartlett-Orr Press, at No. 119 West 25th street. The Action to Recover $5,000,000 Followed father of the bride is president of Hagedorn ra at No. 6 Hanover & Co., insuran street. Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett went to Bermuda.

"JUST LIKE JOHN" IN BUFFALO.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Buffalo, April 18 .- At the Teck Theatre The company, which is incorporated in to-night William A. Brady and George Maine, owns 4,000,000 acres bordering on Broadhurst put forward for the first time fam G. Rockefeller, E. L. Rossiter, Julian Magdalena Bay, in Lower California, and the new comedy, "Just Like John," written under the jurisdiction of Mexico. Two by Mr. Broadhurst and Mark Swan, The years ago a majority of the stockholders play has been chosen for the opening of formed a corporation in New Jersey known Mr. Brady's new 48th street, New York, less a $200,000 endowment fund was pledged theatre next August. "Just Like John" is in three acts and is built around a Secret ley, Herbert Yost, Rapley Holmes, Miss Florine Arnold and the Misses Theodosia De Coppet, Elsa Lorimer and Diva Maroll.

LEFT $70,000 FOR CHARITY.

The will of Moses Welnman, a member of the law firm of Guggenheimer, Untermyer chauffeur trying to turn from the trolley & Marshall, who died on April 17, was filed tracks too quickly, causing a wheel to be in the Surrogates' office yesterday and left $5,000 to each of the following institutions: Mrs. Heinz was thrown out and badly Mt. Sinai Hospital, Hebrew Orphan Asylum, Hebrew Sheltering Guardian Society, Beth Israel Hospital, German Hospital and Dispensary, Monteflore Home, Home for Aged and Infirm Hebrews, Educational Alliance, Hebrew Technical Institute, Hebrew Infant Asylum, Young Men's Hebrew Association, Jewish Protectory and Aid Society Presbyterian Hospital and St. Vincent's Hospital.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Free admission to the American Museum of Natural History and the New York Zoo-logical Park. Invention Show, New Grand Central Palace.

Meeting of the Woman's Forum, No. 23 West 4th street, 11 a. m. Luncheon of the New England Women, Wal-dorf-Astoria, 1 p. m.

Meeting of the New York Railroad Club, No. 29 West 39th street, 8 p. m.

Dinner of the New York Produce Exchange, Hotel Astor, evening.

Dinner for the Columbia Chapter of the Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity, Hotel Manhattan, evening.

Discussion on "The Editorial Conscience; or, Why Is an Editor," at the dinner of the Twilight Club, Aldine Club, evening.

Public fectures of the Board of Education, S.15 p. m.: Manhattan—De Witt Clinton High School, Tenth avenue and Egit street, "Primary Batteries," W. Wallace Kor; Wadleigh High School, 11gh street, west of Seventh averue, "The Revival of Democracy," William B. Guthrie, Ph. D.; Public School 14, No. 225 East 27th street, "Unconsciousness," Dr. F. A. Scratchley, Public School 17, 47th street, west of Eighth avenue, "Picturesque Denmark," William F. Colens; Public School 38, Dominick and Broome streets, "into the British Columbian Wilderness," Miss Mary L. Johe; Public School 40, No. 320 East 20th street, "Anthracite Coal," Frank J. Milman, Ph. D.; Public School 52, Broadway, Inwood, "Daniel Webster," Miss Mary L. Johe; Public School 66, Sth. Street, east of First avenue, "Phases of Elife in Persia," Albert B. Talt; Public School 96, 147th street, west of Seventh School 96, 147th street, west of Seventh School 96, 147th street, west of Seventh School 182 Street, and Wadsworth Rehool 132, 182d street, The Wonders of Elife New York," F. L. Bianchard; Public School 160, Suffolk and B. Wilcox, Public School 160, Suffolk and B. Wilcox, Public School 160, Suffolk and B. Wilcox, Public School 12, Overlag, A. Fulton; Public School 12, Overlag, Professor S. C. Schmucker; Public School 18, Revision streets, "Our Water Supply; How Weford Park, "Our W

MRS. HEVER MARRIES AGAIN CHURCH ROW TO COURT DIX SIGNS CITY

Cry Fraud in Election.

OBTAIN AN INJUNCTION

Bitterness Among Congregation At Least Two Hundred Still in to Which Mrs. Mackay Has Given Much Aid.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Roslyn, Long Island, April 18.-War her home, is possessed of a large fortune.

Dr. Johnston was stationed for a time at the Municipal Hospital, Elackwell's vestry was held ten days ago and three old members were ousted. Some of the adthe rector, the Rev. Clinton H. Brewer, day. says the methods used at the election were variably said "No." and the clergyman amination before the others. would ask Samuel H. Andrews to hand the qualified or not. Have you contributed to the church?" Some of the voters declare that if they said they did, by placing their offering on the plate, the Rev. Mr. Brewer would say this was irregular, as they did not contribute regularly to the envelope fund. William Witte, jr., said he was stopped when he tried to vote, and when he told the rector that he had contributed to the endowment fund, Mr. Brewer said:

"You are foolish to waste your money in that way.'

Mr. Witte said he was told he was not entitled to vote if any one else paid for his pew. Another voter said that when he told Mr. Brewer he did not contribute to the envelope fund or rent a pew, the rector contributors to the church, but none was refused if he was qualified. A majority of those who protest are 'rounders,' who were gathered up in automobiles and rushed to the church. I had never even seen one man who wanted to vote. The contesting party has repeatedly defled the church laws. For a long time I have tried to keep the church troubles quiet, but the decidedly political and spectacular methods used at the election on April 8 have resulted in the disclosure of the internal wrangles."

H. W. Eastman, William Witte, jr.; Fred Davis and Willet Charlick held over on the vestry. Harry W. Moore, E. H. Pletsch, A. G. Penny and J. E. Clark were defeated by the rector's ticket of Dr. John Mann, Samuel H. Andrews, William T. Willis and A. L. Cram. It is said that the majority of the people in the church are siding with the rector, and if the court sets aside the Catholic Church, in West Side avenue, Jerterday. He was sixty-eight years old.

SCHOOL HARD PRESSED Has Big Deficit.

[By Telegraph to The Tribune.] Greenwich, Conn., April 18.-The Bruns-Street, Dr. J. C. Greenway, Gustav Baumann and other well known New Yorkers, EX-REPRESENTATIVE G. F. HUFF. announced to-day that it would close un-in three weeks time. Service man and a group of anarchists he the parents of the pupils, those interested has been assigned to arrest. Walter Jones in the welfare of the town, and investors. plays John, as he will in New York, and It says that an option has been secured the others in the cast are Wallace Wors- on a six acre tract known as Rock Ridge ing to be used as a co-educational institution for boys under ten and girls under fourteen. The trustees are W. J. Hoggson, Fred H. Schwarz and I. Frank Stone, all of New York, with George E. Carmichael, the headmaster for ten years past. Mr. Carmichael is a Bowdoin man and a member of the town public school committee. The school has had a hard struggle for ten years, the trustees making up a deficit out of their own pockets.

STATE INFORMATION BUREAU

Mayors' Conference to Take Up the Question at Utica Meeting.

New York State mayors are being asked Mayors to express their opinion as to the the Republican Club of East Orange and take place on April 26 and not to-day, as general collided with Mrs. Mary S. Lockby the officials of the State Conference of trol of city affairs. He was a member of feasibility of establishing a central mu- other political organizations. He leaves a nicipal bureau of information. The estab- wife and three sons. lishment of such a bureau is being considered by the conference officials, and as soon Dinner of the Texas Club, Hotel Plaza, even- as all the mayors have expressed their opinions a tentative plan will be drafted pinner of the New York Produce Exchange, and presented at the third conference, at 11ths. Utica in June.

It is the opinion of several prominent municipal officials, according to President Duryee of the conference, that a central bureau would be valuable to the cities of the state both from an economic point of view and as an aid for greater efficiency in municipal work.

ALL GUESTS LEAVE HOTEL

Woman Manager Won't Part with Scarlet Fever Stricken Daughter. Montelair, N. J., April 18 (Special).-Mrs.

Claremont avenue, has permitted her fifty guests to depart from the establishment rather than permit her daughter Beatrice, fourteen years old, who is ill with scarlet fever, to suffer the loneliness attendant upon confinement in the county isolation hospital, at Soho.

Quarantining the house, the Health Department explained to the boarders, meant they would have to submit to being shut in for a period of thirty days, and they decided to go away. So Mrs. Frey, one servant and the little girl were the only occupants of the big establishment to-day.

FUNERAL OF EDWARD L. PLUMB. John W. Foster, ex-Secretary of State, and Wayne MacVeagh, intimate friends of Edward Lee Plumb, were pallbearers at his funeral here to-day. Mr. Plumb served in the diplomatic service in Mexico and as consul general at Havana, after which he became associated with W. W. Phelps and Collis P. Huntington in their Mexican enterprises. He was born at Gowanda, N. Y.,

Defeated Vestrymen at Roslyn Eligible Lists for Teachers Cannot Be Merged Hereafter.

MANY MEASURES REMAIN

Hands of the Governor, Who Will Sail To-morrow.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune. Albany, April 18 .- Although he still has among the vestry of Trinity Episcopal at least two hundred bills in his hands. Church, for which Mrs, Clarence H, Mac- Governor Dix expects to leave Albany tokay has stood sponsor for the last few morrow afternoon to sail with Mrs. Dix years, has developed so much bitterness from New York for Europe on Saturday herents of those who were put out have bills. Whatever action he has taken on filed affidavits accompanying an application the appropriation and supply bills will for an injunction, while, on the other hand, probably not be made public until Mon-

Many of the twenty-four bills he signe decidedly political and spectacular-that to-day apply to New York City. One of "rounders" were gathered from the village them, that of Assemblyman Goldberg, applying to the appointment of school teach and rushed to the poils.

To-day Harry W. Moore, a lawyer, who ers, has been vigorously opposed by Superin-Transfiguration, in East 29th street. The was a candidate for junior warden, secured tendent Maxwell of the New York schools. eromony was performed by the rector, the a temporary injunction from Justice Kelby It provides that eligible lists for school Rev. Dr. George C. Houghton, and was fol- restraining the board from acting in any teachers shall not be merged, but that one way until the matter can be heard to-mor- list shall be exhausted before nominations the afternoon session. He paid $255 for a The bride, who was given away by her row. With this injunction are a number of affidavits, some of which state the signers father, Mr. Hathaway, were a white tai-Folie"-a presentation copy to Mme. de lored frock with black hat trimmed with voted the Moore ticket, while others say forces the appointment of teachers, no Folie"—a presentation copy to Mme. de lored frock with black hat trimmed with Police the presented their ballots for that when they presented their ballots for passed, in preference to those who passed they had seen the other ballot. They in- high, simply because they took the ex-Another school bill signed is that of As> semblyman Coine, providing that male ceive a salary not less than the compens "Well, I don't know whether you are tion they would be entitled to before the so-called equal pay law went into effect. The sum of $9,900 is added to the city payroll by two city court bills, which were approved. One by Assemblyman A. E. Smith, increases from eighteen to twentyone the number of assistant deputy city court clerks, and the other by Senator Foley, increases the number of city court attendants from twenty-two to twentyfive. Other New York City bills signed follow:

Senator Wagner-Amending the tenement house law to provide greater protection against fire.

Assemblyman Kennedy-Transferring the fail buildings in Queens County from the custody of the Sheriff to that of the Commissioner of Corrections of New York City.

Assemblyman A. E. Smith-Authorizing

Assemblyman A. E. Smith-Authorizin the Comptroller of New York to issue cer threw the ballot on the floor.

Mr. Brewer said this afternoon:

"The injunction petition is composed of downright lies. The canon laws state definitely that those eligible to vote must be intellected by the church, but none was the contributors to the church, but none was the contributors to the church by the church of th amount he wanted.

Assemblyman A. E. Smith-Providing that candidates for appointment as iremen shall be under twenty-nine years old at the date of filing their application. At present they must be under thirty years old when appointed by the control of the cont nator Foley-Providing that a person who was a city magistrate on January 1, 205, shall be eligible for appointment as tity magistrate. This bill was drawn to ake care of certain ex-magistrates who are debarred under the present law which requires that city magistrates must have been admitted to the bar.

OBITUARY.

THE REV. J. A. SULLIVAN.

election to-morrow there promises to be an sey City, died yesterday. He was born in interesting time when another election is New York January 11, 1860, and was graduated from St. Francis Xavier's College in Louisville, died Wednesday.

Patronized by Rich Men, but It City; St. Columba's Church, Newark; St. served until he was assigned to the new wick School for Boys, which numbers St. Aloysius parish in Jersey City, in 1897. among its pupils sons of Percy and Will- The handsome stone church and parish

The trustees' statement is addressed to capitalist, died at his home here to-day, at the latter place yesterday from apafter a lingering illness, from a complication of diseases. own, Penn., July 16, 1842.

Mr. Huff was a member of the 52d Congirls, where it is planned to have a boys' of the 54th from Pennsylvania at large, and Guns To Be Fired and Fort Flags at candidate nominated, received 646 votes. gress from the 21st Pennsylvania District, boarding school, the present school build- in the 58th, 59th, 69th and 61st from the 22d Pennsylvania district. He was prominently identified with numerous large business enterprises and for years had been president the Keystone Coal and Coke Company, Nichols, William F. Decker, A. C. Henck-en, H. F. Schwarz, H. W. Barton, Paul The funeral will take place at Greensburg,

GEORGE DORER.

East Orange, N. J., April 18 (Special) .-George Dorer, who served eleven years as township committeeman and city councilman and lately was a member of the State Board of Agriculture, died to-day at his home, No. 80 North Grove street, from heart disease, at the age of seventy-six years. He was a native of Germany and had lived in East Orange for sixty years. He retired from business as a dairyman in 1890.

Mr. Dorer's service as member of the municipal governing body ended in 1984, when the Citizens Union changed the con-

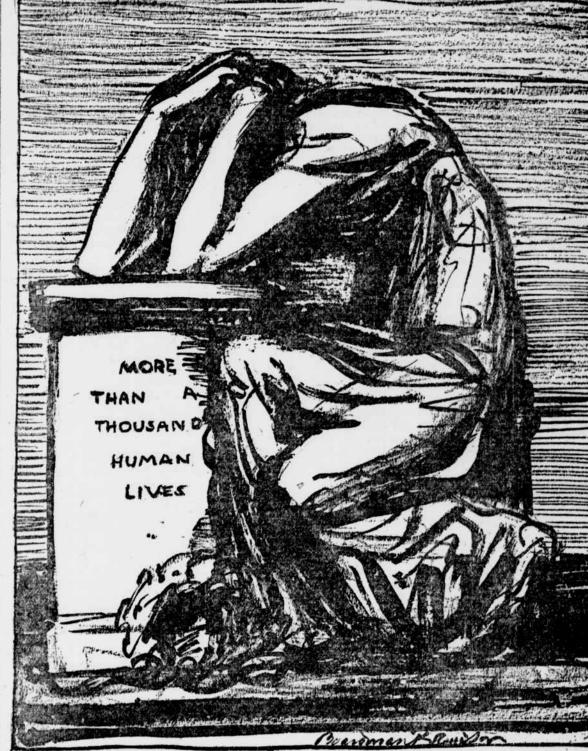

THE REV. WILLIAM L. PALMER. The Rev. William L. Palmer, who was a Baptist minister in Vermont for fifty years when he embraced the Roman Catholic faith, died yesterday in St. Catharine's Hospital, Williamsburg, from injuries he received about two weeks ago while amusing his grand-nephew, Winfield S. Palmer, at his home, No. 533 Glenmore avenue Brooklyn. Mr. Palmer was born in Michlgan in 1820. His parents moved to New York when he was an infant, and after a public school education he went to a Vermont college to pursue his theological studies. He moved to Brooklyn fifteen years ago. In the accident two weeks ago he dislocated his left hip and suffered from shock. On account of his advanced age no hope was held out for his recovery. A nephew, Noyes S. Palmer, died yesterday M. S. Frey, who conducts a hotel at No. 271 at his home, No. 150 Snedeker avenue. The latter was a well known city engineer and did much work around the waters of New York.

JOHN R. DOSCHER.

Sea Cliff, Long Island, April 18 .- John R. Doscher, a retired wholesale baker and a member of the New York Produce Exchange more than thirty years, died at his home here to-day, after a year's illness. He was born in New York City sixty-three years ago and lived in the Williamsburg established a wholesale bakery business and later was with the Kings County Baking Company and afterward with the Shults Bread Company, of which he was a di-Washington, April 18.-Admiral Dewey, rector. His wife and two daughters sur-

OBITUARY NOTES.

J. W. SKINNER, first vice-president of day from a stroke of apoplexy at the age lie Buildings and Grounds to-day the prothe Northwestern Mutual Life Insurance

THE IRONY OF IT.

"The necessary number of lifeboats would be carried at the cost of many of the present comforts of our patrons."-REPLY OF THE WHITE STAR COMPANY TO THE CHARGE THAT THEIR LIFEBOATS WERE TOO FEW, JANUARY, 1909.

lams & Tanner Company, of Fort Plain, N. Y., died there yesterday from pneumonia. He was forty-three years old. B. F. BOWER, former editor of 'The Cleveland News," died at Cleveland yesterday. He had been connected with "The Assemblyman Greenberg-Making it law-ful for New York City magistrates to hold court on Sunday.

Detroit Journal." "The Detroit Post of Sunday.

Tribune" and "The Cincinnati Tribune."

COLONEL ISAAC F. MACK, of Sunday. COLONEL ISAAC F. MACK, of Sanlusky, Ohio, for forty years editor of "The Sandusky Register," one of the earliest members and directors of the Associated Press and formerly commander of the The Rev. Joseph Aloysius Sullivan, for Ohio Grand Army of the Republic, died five years old, pastor of Holy Cross Church,

COMMODORE FRANK E. SAWYER, U. John's, Paterson, and February 28, 1892, COMMODORE FRANK E. SAWYER, U. was made paster of the Church of Our S. N. (retired), died suddenly at his home Lady of Mt. Carmel, Ridgewood, where he in Newton, Mass., Wednesday. During the Spanish war Commodore Sawyer was on duty on the gunboat Fern, in Cuban waters, oplexy. He leaves a wife.

Half-Mast.

the Eastern Division, U. S. A., has issued General Grant, which will be held on Governor's Island:

The death of Major General Frederick Dent Grant, U. S. A., commander of the Eastern Division, in New York City, at 11:35 p. m. of Thursday, April 11, 1912, while on leave of absence, is aunounced to this tion for vice-president general, while the command. 11:35 p. m. of Thursday, April 11, 1912, while on leave of absence, is announced to this command.

The funeral services will be held at the Chapel Saint Cornelius the Centurion, Governor's Island, at 10:30 a. m. on Friday, the 25th inst.; the interment will take place at West Point. N. Y., on the same date.

The flag at each military post in this division will be displayed at half staff on the day of the funeral, and thirteen guns will be fired at half hour intervals from Fort Jay, Governor's Island, commencing at 8 o'clock a. m.

All officers serving under the orders of the division commander will wear the usual badge of milliary mourning for a period of thirty days from the date of this order.

It will be noted that the funeral will has been previously published.

PROF. KOCH'S BRAIN HEAVY Wistar Institute.

Chicago, April 18.-The brain of the late Vladimir Koch, assistant professor of pharwilled to Wistar Institute, of Philadelphia, it has just become known here. The brain was found to be heavier than the average. it is said by Miss Mathilde Koch, sister of the professor, and it will be examined by brain specialists in several American col-

YOUNG BOY HEIR TO $150,000

Mrs. C. S. Wylie Leaves Everything Except Few Diamond Rings to Son. Mineola, Long Island, April 18 (Special).-

who died at Montelair, N. J., on March 12. was filed for probate in the Surrogate's office here this morning and disposes of an estate estimated to be worth $150,000. Under its terms a few diamond rings ar left to friends, and everything else is left section of Brooklyn nearly fifty years; He to the only child, Kenneth McNell Wylle, The executor, Francis B. Taylor, is authorized to educate the boy, who is to get the interest on the estate when he is journey, for the present, at least. twenty-one years old and the entire amount when he is twenty-five.

posed appropriation of $5,000,000 for a new on the proposals for a parcels post and postal express. CLINTON J. PARRY, head of the Will, site for the New York City Postoffice.

Detroit Journal," "The Detroit Post and Long Time Used in Balloting Amazes the Members.

tinental Hall, or from twelve seconds to one and a half minutes each. The voting THE REV. JOHN SHERIDAN, sixty- for ten vice-presidents general, two honor-administration victory. The following were elected vice-presidents Rapid Transit, $235,061. general, receiving the vote indicated out of a total cast of 860:

Two honorary vice-presidents general were chosen-Mrs. Charles H. GEN. GRANT'S FUNERAL ORDER Hillinois, 504, and Mrs. John R. Walker, Missouri, 478. For editor of the magazine Miss E. O. Denniston, Pennsylvania, the only

"Just suppose women all over the country had a vote," said one delegate. "We would said General Tasker H. Bliss, commanding need a month of election days." Even after all of the votes were in some of the rooters the following orders for the funeral of for their defeated favorites contended that the inoffensive looking machines must have gone wrong. It was the novelty of the

> Mrs. Joseph S. Wood, state regent of New York, enjoyed a defeat in the election for vice-president general, which surpassed in enthusiasm the election of many others. She missed the office by only two votes, and had the women of the State of New York rallied to her support she would have had the largest majority of any of the candidates. All of Mrs. William Cumming Story's candidates were defeated. Election day and the Chalkley manuscripts turned the day's session of the Continental Congress into the wildest pande monium, in which arms waved, women fairly screamed to be heard and the gavel It will be noted that the funeral will banged like a gatling gun. The president wood, adjusted her own dressing bonnet with a deft touch and then arranged Mrs. Lockwood's bonnet just as prettily. Upon a motion of Miss Janet Richardson, the now famous Chalkley manuscripts, the Chicago Scientist Willed Organ to the bone of contention through several congresses, were presented as a gift to Mrs. Mary E. Lockwood. She will publish them, as the Daughters would not, and will finally give a copy to the Continental Hall macology in the University of Chicago, was library. The papers are the records of a county in Virginia, and are said to be full of errors due to carelessness and too much condensation.

Mrs. Scott declared that she would not look at the papers for $10,000, and after the rumpus quieted down announced, "We are rld of the Chalkley manuscripts, and now Miss Koch was aiding her brother to complete a treatise on the chemistry of the brain. This treatise will be published with the report of the specialists.

Tid of the Charley manuscripts, and how let us sing, 'Praise God, from Whom All Blessings Flow' —and they did.

This afternoon all of the delegates and members paid their respects to the President and Mrs. Tart, and peace reigned.

THEATRICAL NOTES.

"The Typhcon," in which Walker Whitside is the chief player, will be the next play studied by The Theatre Club, of which Mrs. J. Christopher Marks is president. The club will attend the next Wednesday The will of Mrs. Christine Sharp Wylle, matines at the Hudson Theatre.

Mme. Luisa Tetrazzini will safi for Europe on the Mauretania on April 24. Max Hirshfeld will conduct the orchestra at the Tetrazzini concert next Sunday evening at the Hippodrome, which will be the occasion of the singer's final appear-ance in America this season. F. Ziegfeld, jr., who had arranged to

PARCELS POST FAVORED BY HOUSE

Washington, April 18.-The House went on

ASK $5,000,000 FOR NEW P. O. SITE. record to-day as favoring the parcels post Washington, April 18.—Postmaster Morgan system and a commission to gather inforof New York and United States Attorney mation relative to its creation and the con-Wise and Senators O'Gorman and Root demnation of the express, companies, There urged before the Senate Committee on Pub- will be fifteen hours of debate, beginning VOTE PEACEFUL EX-MAYOR GRANT'S ESTATE Most of $9,245,476 in Personal Property.

Wallace S. Fraser, Deputy State Controller, filed the transfer tax appraisal of the estate of former Mayor Hugh J. Grant. which confirms the figures given in The Tribune last Monday. The value of the net Washington, April 18.-It required ten estate at the time of Mr. Grant's death, on ours and fifteen minutes for 860 Daughters November 3, 1910, was $9,245,476. Most of of the American Revolution to cast their this was in personal property, including a ballots in two voting machines in Con- deposit of $1,027,000 with the Central Trust Company.

Among the large holdings of Mr. Grant were bonds in the following companies: ary vice-presidents general and an editor Consolidated Tobacco, $160,600; Cicero Gas, started at 2:15 o'clock yesterday afternoon $82,800; Kings County Electric Light, $824,-June, 1879. He was ordained a priest at HENRY STRATER, one of the best and lasted at intervals until 10 o'clock, 000; Memphis Consolidated Gas, $184,450; He served as assistant in St. Joseph's and St. Michael's churches, in Jersey City; St. Columba's Church, Newark; St.

known tobacco manufacturers in the country, died at his home in Louisville Wednesday, He was sixty-one years old.

known tobacco manufacturers in the country, died at his home in Louisville Wednesday, He was sixty-one years old.

known tobacco manufacturers in the country, died at his home in Louisville Wednesday, He was sixty-one years old.

known tobacco manufacturers in the country, died at his home in Louisville Wednesday, He was sixty-one years old.

known tobacco manufacturers in the country, died at his home in Louisville Wednesday, He was sixty-one years old. Hamilton & Dayton, $82,662; Brooklyn

Some of the shares of stock held by Mr. Grant were: Central Trust, $486,540; Con-St. Aloysius parish in Jersey City, in 1897.
The handsome stone church and parish school were built through his efforts. The funeral will be held Monday morning.

EX-REPRESENTATIVE G. F. HUFF.

Washington, April 18.—Ex-Representative George F. Huff, a prominent Pennsylvania George F solidated Gas, $826,356; Great Northern, 3144,600, and Metals Selling Company, Thompson Hill Land and Improvement

Company, $273,048. Among the real estate included in the es tate of the former Mayor was his home, at No. 20 West 72d street, valued at $175,000; Nos. 41-43 Maiden Lane, valued at $275,000, and No. 97 to 103 Horatio street, valued at Mr. Grant left his entire estate to his wife, Mrs. Julia Grant, at whose will be divided among her children.

MARRIED. BARTLETT-SCHNAKENBERG -- On Wedness day, April 17, at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, by the Rev. Herbert Shipman, Rector, assisted by the Rev. Duncan H. Browne, Rector of Christ Church, New Brighton, & I., Anna Kate, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Schnakenberg, of New Brighton, States Island, to Edward Everett Bartlett, Jr., of New York.

Notices of marriages and deaths must be

Allen, Augustus H. Bangs, Julia F. Boyd, Robert C. Hanna, Angelina W. Harbeck, Hester E. Redman, Henrietta M Seybel, Laura M. Green, Octavia.

ALLEN-On April 17, 1912, Augustus H. Allen. Funeral services from his late residence, No. 206 Bedford Park Boulevard New York City, Friday, April 19, at 10 o'clock a.m. Carriages will be at the Brons Park station of the Third ave. slovated rail-

Park station of the Third ave. elevated rall-road, at 10:45 a. m. Kindly omit flowers. BANGS—On Thursday, April 18, 1912, Julia Frances Bangs, daughter of the late Lemuel and Julia A. Bangs. Foureria services on Sat-urday, April 20, 1912, at 2 p. m. St. Paul's M. E. Church, West End ave. and 86th st. BOYD—On Thursday, April 18, 1912, Robert Cornell Boyd, in the 92d year of his age. Pu-neral services will be held at his late rasi-dence, No. 409 West 21st st., on Saturday, April 20, at 11:30 a. m. Interment at Wood-lawn. Special train will loave Grand Central Station on arrival of carriages.

GREEN—At Goldens Bridge, N. Y., Thursday, April 18, 1912, Octavia Green, in her 79th year. Funeral service from the residence of Mr. Edward S. Green, Sunday, April 21, at 1:30 p. m. Carriages will be in waiting at Goldens Bridge on arrival of train leaving Grand Central Depot at 10:15 a. m.

HANNA—On Wednesday, April 17, 1012, Angelina W., youngest daughter of Eliza Saumer and the late Saumei Hanna. Funeral services will be held at her late home, No. 449 Washington ave., Believille, N. J., on Saturday, April 20, at 2:30 p. m. Interment private.

HARBECK—At South Nyack, N. Y., Tuesday, April 16, 1912, Hester E., widow of Henry Harbeck. Funeral services at St. Ann's Roman Catholic Church, Nyack, N. Y., Fri-day, at 10 a. m. Interment at Woodlawn Cemetery.

REDMAN—On April 17, Henrietta M., widow of the late James H. Redman. Funeral services at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence W. Taylor, No. 251 West 1034 st., on Satur-day, April 20, at 1:30 p. m. Interment pri-SEYBEL-On April 17, after a short illness, Laura Morton Seybel, wife of Daniel Ed-ward Seybel. Funeral services will be held at St. Bartholomew's Church, corner 44th st, and Madison ave., on Saturday morning, April 20, at 10:30. CEMETERIES.

THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY, 233d St. By Harlem Train and by Trollen Office, 20 East 23d St., N. Y. FRANK E. CAMPBELL, 241-8 West 23d St.

Chapels, Private Tel. 1324 Chelsea. OFFICES.

MAIN OFFICE—No. 184 Nassau street.

UPTOWN OFFICE — No. 1864 Breadway, os any American District Telegraph Office.

HABLEM OFFICES—No. 187 East 125th street, No. 263 West 125th street and No. 210 West 125th street.

WASHINGTON BUREAU—Westory Beliding